

Developing Identity

Encouraging opportunities to develop identity, strengths, personal awareness and responsibility, setting goals and growth

Collaborating

Working together and collectively problem solve, be critical, communicate ideas and learn together

Exploration and Inquiry

Challenging interrogative, relevant interest centric exploration and inquiry with hands on, collaborative experiences where students can be critical, creative and reflective

Middle Years Philosophy and Pedagogy

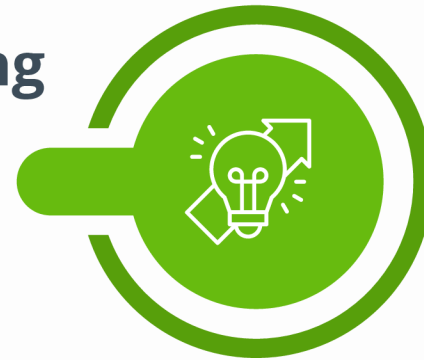

Valuing Diversity

Respecting , understanding and valuing perspectives, cultures, experiences, behaviors and needs of everyone

Active and Personal Learning

Actively participating in learning through decision making, voice and choice, reflection on goals for growth and improvement and interest exploration

Ongoing Formative Assessment and Feedback

Co-creating criteria and offering in the moment feedback to help our learners move forward with their learning - valuing conversation and observation assessment tools

Learning and Teaching in Multiple Ways

Utilizing various modes of delivery, universal design for learning and demonstrating learning in different ways

Agency, Voice and Choice

Learners choosing and advocating for how to best move forward with their learning assessment and demonstrating learning

